Revival Snack Supper

Heather Gobin is asking for volunteers to bring food for the revival snack supper on March 7 at 6:00 pm. and for volunteers to serve, cleanup, etc. If you would be willing to help in this manner, please contact Heather at heathergo@att.net. We hope to have 75-100 there for dinner at 6 PM.

Jay Johnson will be leading the morning service at 10:30 a.m. and the evening service at 7:00 p.m. The snack supper will precede the evening service.

Missions Supplies Box

This week, items to bring to the manger in the Narthex, for the health kits, will be full size combs and finger nail clippers.

When God gives you a vision and darkness follows wait. God will make you in accordance with the vision He has given if you will wait His time. Never try and help God fulfill His word.

FROM THE PASTOR...

Having just returned from Men's Quest # 97 of Fellowship of the Sword near Junction, Texas, I want to share my experience of that event with the men of our church. This Monday, March 1, we will meet at the same time as the United Methodist Women, at 6pm. I will present the program about the Fellowship of the Sword, and then Bill Jones, our UMM president, will lead us in planning for future UMM events. It will be our first regular meeting since November of 2009. I want to invite all our men to come and be a part of our meeting on March 1.

C U then!

Children's Ministry BIBLE-IT

Attention, Parents!! You should be receiving and email from me (Rodney) this week. Sunday, the upper elementary children decided which books of the Bible they wanted to read a chapter a day. I will keep a chart in my office to track our progress. We will try to celebrate with a party from time to time when we finish our chosen book of the Bible. I have the Jesus ABCs for lower elementary students.

One Great Hour of Sharing

At the Finance Committee meeting, it was decided to promote One Great Hour of Sharing as the Special offering left at the Prayer rail on the March Communion Sunday, March 7.

THE 2010 OFFERING—ESSENTIAL TO UMCOR

Gifts to this offering underwrite UMCOR's "costs of doing business." That helps us keep our promise that 100 percent of every other gift you make to a specific UMCOR project can be spent on that project—not on home office costs.

UMCOR is a good steward of God's gifts. UMCOR's top ratings by both Charity Navigator and the American Institute of Philanthropy attest to UMCOR's financial accountability.

Offering gifts over and above those used to cover administrative costs are channeled where they're most needed. UMCOR's specialized ministries responding in disaster, fighting hunger, alleviating poverty, providing relief supplies around the world, and offering hospitality to immigrants and refugees all assist the most vulnerable people whose need is greatest.

NO WORLD SERVICE FUNDS COME TO UMCOR

UMCOR receives no World Service funds or any other apportionments. Your gifts mean we're right there with hardworking families, people who are affected by storms or war, disaster or disease.

The One Great Hour of Sharing offering provides essential support to UMCOR. Without this offering so much of what UMCOR does to bring hope and healing to the world could not happen.

(<http://new.gbqm-umc.org/umcor/give/oghs>. This website has more information about UMCOR ministries, posters and bulletin inserts You might be able to use their poster as clip art for the newsletter. There is also a video clip that can be downloaded.)

If you don't have enough time for your family, you can be 100% certain you are not following God's will for your life.

Patrick M. Morley

God is more interested in making us what we ought to be than giving us what we think we ought to have.

If you own something you cannot give away, then you don't own it, it owns you.

Albert Schweitzer

Youth

Remember your small groups on Wednesday evenings.

Be making plans for the youth mission trip coming up in June with information being given out on Wednesday.

Thinking of Lent

Advent prepares us for Christ's birth; Lent prepares us for the glorious act of Christ's resurrection. Churches have special services during the weeks of Lent, but it's what each of us does regarding our spiritual life that makes Lent most meaningful. Lent is a good time to read, study and inwardly digest the four gospels. The word gospel means "good news."

A college student decided to work his way through Matthew, Mark, Luke and John for his Lenten devotional time. Soon he was fascinated by the stories, such as the Pharisees and Sadducees trying to trap Jesus in debate. The brilliant Jesus handled every occasion with wisdom, leaving the authorities dumbfounded. During his devotional time, the student was filled with laughter and amazement at the brilliant son of God, who was only in his 30's. Get to know the "Good News" and you will understand the young man's amazement.

"Are you tired? Worn Out? Burned out on religion? Come to me. Get away with me and you'll recover your life. I'll show you how to take a real rest. Walk with me and work with me—watch how I do it. Learn the unforced rhythms of grace. I won't lay anything ill-fitting on you. Keep company with me and you'll learn to live freely and lightly.
